

LIVING SKY CASINO

INDIGENOUS ADULT BASIC EDUCATION (ABE) PERSISTENCE AWARD

About the Award

The Indigenous ABE Persistence Award is provided by Living Sky Casino and Saskatchewan Indian Gaming Association (SIGA). It is designed to recognize the perseverance of ABE students in the Indigenous community by offering monetary awards to Indigenous students who are actively enrolled in the Adult Basic Education program at Great Plains College. Students must be enrolled in the Maple Creek or Swift Current ABE program and must demonstrate their dedication to pursuing further education.

A total of four (4) awards of $500 will be provided annually for students actively enrolled in either the Grade 12 Upgrading or Pre-12 programs. Representatives from Living Sky Casino and Great Plains College will base their selection of the award to candidates on the eligibility criteria below.

Eligibility

To be eligible, applicants must be currently enrolled in the Great Plains College Adult Basic Education program, in either the Grade 12 Upgrading or Pre-12 streams, at the Maple Creek Program Centre or Swift Current Campus. The applicants must be of Indigenous ancestry.

Applicants must also demonstrate that, through personal determination, they have tackled and overcome barriers in order to continue with their formal education.

Application Form

The application form is attached and/or available online. The completed application form may be submitted by email, in person or mail. Confirmation of enrolment in the ABE program and a photocopy of your status card, Métis membership card or formal letter of support from an appropriate First Nations community leader, must accompany the submission in order for the application to be considered. Completed applications must be received by noon on Monday, October 8, 2018.
