

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

As an educational assistant, you will work one-on-one with kids with diverse learning needs, assisting them in all aspects of their school work and helping create inclusive classrooms.

In this part-time certificate program, you will learn about everything from basic care skills and crisis prevention techniques, to social, emotional and cognitive development. You will also complete two practicums that will give you an opportunity to practice your skills and gain a better understanding of what to expect in a real classroom with real kids.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

- Grade 12
- English language requirement
- Criminal Record Check and/or Vulnerable Sector Check may all be required prior to practicum.

Please note that if you do not meet the entrance requirements, special admissions options may be available.
