

International Student Award

APPLICATION

Five $2,000 awards will be given out each year to students enrolled in the second year of a diploma program. The application will be assessed on three core components – final grade point average from their first year of studies, attendance and community involvement. The application deadline is May 31, 2022, at 4 PM. The award recipients will be notified by the end of June and the award will be presented at the scholarship reception in the fall.

Students starting a full-time diploma program in January are eligible to apply for the award in their second year of the program.

To be considered for the award you must meet the following criteria:

- have a valid Canadian study permit
- be registered in a full-time diploma program at a Great Plains College campus (Business or Youth Care Worker)
- are paying international student fee rates
- have submitted your intent to return from and paid the deposit for the second year
- have a Canadian social insurance number
- submit a completed application to development@greatplainscollege.ca by the deadline of May 31, 2022, at 4 PM.
